

STATE OF NEVADA ATHLETIC COMMISSION

EXPECTATIONS FOR AMATEUR PROMOTERS & VENUES

The following information is for review by individuals or companies inquiring about getting licensed to hold events of amateur kickboxing and/or amateur mixed martial arts in Nevada. The information is being provided solely for guidance, and does not modify any statutes, regulation or policies of the Nevada Athletic Commission. If you have any questions or want any additional information, please contact the commission office at (702) 486-2575 or boxing@boxing.nv.gov.

First you must get licensed by the commission. Below are the requirements and a brief explanation of the process.

1. Completed ORIGINAL application and five (5) copies of the entire application package. Failure to answer all questions and submit backup documentation and/or give an explanation in writing as to why they are not included as part of the application will result in your application not being placed on a Commission agenda for consideration. To get an application you must submit your name, address and telephone number along with the structure of your company and how many officers in your company, if you are not a sole proprietor, to us via email at boxing@boxing.nv.gov or fax (702) 486-2577.
2. Two fingerprint cards and a Civil Applicant Waiver for each officer of the corporation, partnership or proprietorship. Each card must be filled out completely. Along with each set of cards you must submit a CERTIFIED CHECK or MONEY ORDER made payable to Nevada State Highway Patrol in the amount of $37.50. The cards are submitted to the Highway Patrol and FBI for background checks and require 90 to 120 days for the information to be returned to us. Please submit them immediately if you want to cut down on the time required obtaining a license.
3. Two years income tax returns, corporate or individual depending on business structure. If your company does not have two years of tax returns you may be required to submit personal tax returns on all officers of the company.
4. You must submit any additional information requested by the commission.
5. $500 Application fee will be collected upon approval of the application and completion of bond requirement.
6. $10,000 dollar refund bond or a $10,000 c/d (must be purchased by us as TTEE).
7. A representative of the organization to be licensed must be present at a scheduled commission meeting when the application for licensure is discussed.
8. All requests for dates to promote must be made in writing and submitted to the commission office as far in advance as possible, as they require commission approval on a Commission agenda.

The following costs are associated with promoting an event in Nevada.

- SANCTIONING BODY

You must use a sanctioning body that has been recognized by the athletic commission to supervise events in Nevada. Currently the following sanctioning bodies have been approved for Amateur MMA: KICK International, ISKA or ISCF MMA and for Amateur Kickboxing: KICK International, ISKA, USTMA and MTIA.

Contact information for sanctioning bodies:

KICK International - <http://www.kickinternational.org>

ISKA - <http://www.iskaworldhq.com>

ISCF - <http://www.iscfmma.com>

USTMA - <http://www.usmta.com>

- INSURANCE

Primary medical insurance on the participants must be in the minimum amount of $25,000 per unarmed combatant. The promoter is responsible for any deductible.

- TICKETS FEES

You pay a 6% ticket fee on the gross sale of tickets. You also pay a 6% fee on your complimentary tickets if they exceed 4% of the gross seating of the house, or are used to trade for services.

- TELEVISION/BROADCAST FEES

You pay 3% of the first million dollars in television/broadcast revenue and 1% of the next two million. The television/broadcast fees cap out at $50,000.

- AMBULANCE

The promoter must have paramedics and an ambulance at the site. There must be oxygen, a first aid kit and a stretcher at ringside. The ambulance will most likely be paid for by the commission if the show is a public event. If you have to pay for the ambulance, the average cost is $500 depending on the length of time of your show. .

The following items are the responsibility of the promoter to complete in the time frame given.

- MMA SHOWS

For mixed martial arts (MMA) shows, the promoter must register the card at abc.mixedmartialarts.com and you must have the sanctioning body send us via email copy of the results from the show within 2 business days after the event.

- TELEVISION/BROADCASTING CONTRACTS

Copies of all the contracts for the sale, lease or other exploitation of broadcasting, television and motion picture rights need to be submitted to the commission office at least 3 working days before the event. This includes national, foreign, cable, pay-per-view and radio sales, including any and all rebroadcast rights.

- DRESSING ROOMS

The promoter must provide, or must make sure the venue provides the dressing rooms with ice, tables, towels and blankets. There also needs to be a sufficient amount of drinking water in the dressing rooms.

Dressing rooms need to be located where there is easy access to the ring. If you have female contestants on the card, they will need to have separate dressing rooms.

- EQUIPMENT

The promoter must provide, or must make sure the venue provides, three tall stools for the judges, a sufficient number stools in each corner for the seconds and inspectors, spit buckets, ice buckets, and bell or horn for the event.

- SCALE

The promoter must provide a calibrated scale for the weigh-in.

- GLOVES

The promoter is responsible for supplying all gloves for the event. All gloves used must be on the approved list. Approved Gloves

- SECURITY

Security will be needed to walk the fighters to the ring and at ringside after the fight. Security also needs to be stationed at the entrance to the dressing rooms.
